Erasmus+

KID_Preneurship
2020-1-LV01-KA201-077505

KIDPRENEURSHIP.EU

| ACTIVITY NAME | You Lead, I listen |
|---|---|
| OUTPUT NUMBER | IO2 |
| PARTNER | ArtSmart |
| ACTIVITY & CLASS | Team Work and Communication8-10 Years old |
| DURATION | 30 minutes |
| OBJECTIVES | The activity will teach to give exact commands and listen carefully. Activity should also teach for the team not to talk (give) simultaneously. |
| MATERIALS | • Scarf or other material to cover the eyes of the team member who is being lead. |
| LEARNING ACTIVITY METHOD | • Class is being divided in teams of 3-4 members each.• One of the team members get eyes covered with scarf and the other team members should lead it through the "route" being set by the teacher (the "route" can be anything, starting from reaching the other end of the classroom, till having an obstacle course in classroom or out in the yard.• In order to add a competition element, time can be taken and best teams awarded• All team members should at least one time be with closed eyes• It is preferred that only one team perform at a time (other teams can what and learn from the performance of other teams);• Leading instructions should be given only with voice with verbal instructions. |

Erasmus+

| VISUALSImages/videoclip | n/a |
|---|---|
| TEACHER PREPARATION | • Prepare 1-2 scarfs or other pieces of clothe with which the eyes of the team member will be covered.• Prepare a route that will have to be passed with eyes closed.• Explain carefully how to give verbal instructions – that they should be clear, they should be timely and that the team should not talk simultaneously. |
| TEACHER'S EVALUATION | • Did the over ability to cooperate within teams improved during the task?• Did the team members learned to give clear commands?• Did the team member who had eyes covered improved its skills to listen• Did the teams managed its cooperation in a way that team• Did any of team members took an initiative to be leaders and lead the process of leading the team member with covered eyes? |